NOTICE!
THE TYROLEAN ALPS WILL NOT OPEN SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 4TH.

The management of the Tyrolean Alps begs to announce that, after having constructed gates on its east side, it is employing every means possible to enable it to receive the public on Sunday. It has received official notice from the Exposition Management, which controls the strip of unoccupied and unused ground east of the Alps, over which patrons would have been compelled to use new gates, arranged positively forbidding any use of this strip as a means of access to the Alps.

The Management planned to open in order to meet the desires of a considerable element of the public, but it is unwilling to invite the public to trespass upon property which is already open to the public.

Having done all in its power to meet the wishes of the public, it requests a continuance of patronage as heretofore.
